

Weekly Update

Welcome to a special edition of the newsletter focusing on our production of 'Oliver!'

Congratulations to the cast of Oliver! who performed at The Newman Hall in Westbury on Trym last week. The cast and orchestra, made up of over 50 students from Years 7 to 10, worked brilliantly together to put on a fantastic show. The process was a lot of fun but not without challenges.

Thank you to all the parents, carers, students and staff who came to support the show and in particular to Mr Davies for his technical input and Miss Clifton, Mr Pate and Miss Green.

"It was like being in a family; everyone helped and supported each other."

"It was so exciting performing at The Newman Hall and made it feel professional."

"The singing was incredible."

"It was so much fun to be in- I can't wait until next year's."

OLIVER! SPECIAL

"It was brilliant- I didn't recognise some of the cast they were that good."

"Everyone was really enthusiastic; you could tell they were enjoying themselves."

"It was the best experience of my life."

"We came to see the production of Oliver on Friday night and I am emailing to say how fantastic we thought it was. The entire cast were so enthusiastic in their performances and the singing was amazing. We thoroughly enjoyed the show and felt very proud of all the children that we know... The lead characters were outstanding both in terms of singing and acting ... entire show was put together in such a professional way ...it was like seeing a professional production."

Miss Clifton: "It was a pleasure to work with such talented and hardworking individuals."

Mr Pate: "The quality of singing was fantastic from all, well done! And thanks to the orchestra for their hard work and dedication bringing the songs to life."

Miss Green: "The students should be proud of their achievements – the reaction of the audience said it all. Roll on the next one!"
